The Wanamaker History Club

THE plays of Shakespeare do not surpass other dramas more than Ridpath's History of the World overtops all general histories. We never questioned its excellence, but we did regret to see its usefulness hampered by the publishers' prices-$48 to $175 a set. So we undertook to distribute an entire edition by the co-operative help of a clubbing arrangement-and the most decided book bargain ever offered is the result. Instead of $48, the cloth-bound edition costs members $23.50-$1 club fee and $1.50 a month for fifteen months.

The half-Russia binding calls for monthly payments of $2, and the full morocco for payments of $2.50. There are eight massive volumes, 6,500 large double-column pages, the equivalent of thirty ordinary books of 500 pages. Nearly 4,000 maps, chronological and genealogical charts, race plates and race charts, in 12 colors, engravings and reproductions from the originals by the great masters of European and American art, illustrate and enforce the text, and form the greatest gallery of historical pictures ever brought together. The Club membership fee is
